

Contract Change Notification: Upcoming Home Changes for Vermont Platinum Portfolio Clients

We regularly review our personal insurance products to ensure they provide competitive coverage and pricing. And, as new risks or trends emerge, we may adjust our contract language to reinforce our intended scope of coverage. Over time, these changes allow us to better manage the cost of insurance while also helping to preserve our long-term capacity for you and your clients.

Effective October 7, 2017 for new business and December 7, 2017 for renewals, we are introducing changes to our Platinum Portfolio Home contract in Vermont.

We have spent considerable time reviewing our updated Home contract and are confident this policy continues to provide some of the broadest protection available in the industry today.
